1. Introduction

1.1 Purpose

The Director's Code of Conduct (the Code) defines the expected standard of behaviour and provides guidance to assist Directors in carrying out their duties and responsibilities to standards expected by the community, shareholding Ministers and other stakeholders.

The Code should be read in conjunction with the Powerlink Employee Code of Conduct, which details general standards of behaviour expected from all those who carry out work for Powerlink.

1.2 Introductory Statement

Powerlink Queensland is committed to operating in accordance with the highest standards of business ethics, professional standards and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The Board of Powerlink (the "Board") promotes ethical behaviour and has adopted this Code of Conduct for the Board, individual Directors and Board Committees.

Every Director must:

- Act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of all the shareholders of the corporation.
- Exhibit high standards of integrity, commitment and independence of thought and judgment.
- Uphold Powerlink's values in the conduct of their duties.
- Actively encourage the reporting of unlawful or unethical behaviour at Powerlink and the proactive management of complaints.
- Take all reasonable steps to be satisfied as to the soundness of all decisions taken and ensure material risks are being appropriately managed.
- Maintain appropriate business and financial records.
- Act for a proper purpose and in the best interests of the corporation.
- Dedicate sufficient time, energy and attention to ensure due care and diligence in the performance of their duties.
- Meet the required standard of behaviour and integrity set out in the Code.

1.3 Scope

This policy applies to all Directors appointed to the Board of Powerlink.

1.5 Monitoring and compliance

The Board will ensure that this document is reviewed annually to ensure it is operating effectively.

2. Requirements

2.1 Leadership

The Board plays a key leadership role in setting and facilitating an organisational culture that will lead to the achievement of Powerlink's strategic objectives.

All directors will endeavour to create a positive and inclusive working environment that values diversity, puts the safety of workers and customers as a first priority, and supports the development of employees to meet the needs of the business.

2.2 Conflicts of Interest

The Board must ensure that conflicts of interest (including actual or potential conflicts) are managed in a transparent and effective manner. This includes:

- Avoiding actual or potential conflicts of interest where possible.
- Identifying and disclosing any actual or potential conflicts.
- Following the requirements of the Powerlink Board – Directors Conflict of Interest Policy.

2.3 Use of Corporate Information and Assets

No Director may improperly use any corporation information or asset.

Next revision due: 26/07/2024	HARDCOPY IS UNCONTROLLED	© Powerlink Queensland

This includes not taking advantage of information or their position for direct or indirect personal advantage or the advantage of any associated person.

2.4 Confidentiality

Pursuant to their fiduciary duties, Directors are required to protect and hold confidential all non-public information obtained through their position, except where authorised by the Board or otherwise required by law.

2.5 Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations

Directors are required to comply with applicable laws, rules and regulations in the conduct of their duties.

2.6 Fairness and Equity

Directors will deal fairly and impartially with Powerlink's employees, customers, suppliers, competitors and other key stakeholders.

2.7 Public Comment

Directors are not authorised to make any public comment or comment to the media on behalf of or about the corporation without the approval of the Chair.

Directors have the right to make public comment and enter into public debate on political and social issues only in a private capacity. These views are not to be presented in such a way that they may be interpreted as being the views of the corporation.

2.8 Accountability

Directors are required to read Board materials, inform themselves and prepare for meetings so that they are able to participate fully in the activities, deliberations and decisions of the Board.

Directors are required to attend Board and committee meetings regularly, subject to arrangements for leave which have been approved by the Chair.

A Director should not engage in conduct likely to bring discredit or damage the reputation of the corporation.

2.9 Economy and Efficiency

Directors should ensure the efficient use of Powerlink's assets for legitimate business purposes.

Directors will take steps to assure themselves that Powerlink's resources are being used efficiently and effectively to achieve the business' strategic objectives.
